

TAX TREATY STATEMENT

United Kingdom
Article 20

1. I was a resident of the United Kingdom on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I am a postdoctoral researcher visiting the United States for the purpose of advance study, teaching or research at Carnegie Institution of Washington, which is a recognized research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching, research or study activities.
3. The compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) for these activities qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and the United Kingdom. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a student, apprentice, or trainee during the immediately preceding period.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____ (the date of your last arrival into the United States before the services for which the exemption is claimed). The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of two years beginning on that date. The entire treaty exemption is lost RETROACTIVELY if my stay in the United States exceeds two years.
